How do you get experience if nobody will hire you without any?

You need a job to get experience but you need experience to get a job but how can you crack the job market for the very first time?

Internships are one of the ways to break this loop.

One of the major setbacks that encounter fresh graduates these days is that they don't have enough experience in the workplace. Providing an environment where undergraduate students will be able to gain this experience will help them have a fresh head-start in their careers.
